

Dr. Lisk has been a Principle Site Investigator in several national clinical research trials in Parkinson's disease.

Dr. Lisk is an Alumni of University of Michigan in Ann Arbor, where he did research on immunotoxin therapy. He received a medical degree at the Medical College of Virginia and Interned at The University of California, Los Angeles. He completed Neurology Residency & received a Movement Disorders fellowship at the University of Texas at Houston.

Memberships include The International Parkinson's Disease and Movement Disorder Society and The American Academy of Neurology where he is on the Digital Strategy Committee, Career Leadership Subcommittee, Movement Disorder Topic Workgroup Subcommittee and has been faculty, as well as, a moderator for past International American Academy Annual Meetings.

Former appointments include- Board of Directors of the American Heart Association- African-American Task Force for the Western States, Alzheimer's Association Board-Member- Southwest Missouri Chapter, Expert Reviewer for the California Medical Board, member of the American Association for Physician Leadership and Association of American Physicians & Surgeons and a member of the California Neurology Society Bylaws Committee.

Dr. Lisk is a 2013 Graduate of the American Academy of Neurology Palatucci Advocacy Leadership Forum, 2016 Graduate of the American Academy of Neurology Diversity Leadership Program, 2018 Graduate of the Trinity Leadership Curriculum, 2010 NAACP Man of Valor Award Recipient. He has also been voted as one of Pasadena Top Docs by Pasadena Magazine from 2011 to 2015.

Current Appointments positions include- Health Services Authority Board of Directors by Governor Gregg Abbott, Medical Advisory Committee for the California State Athletic Commission and Board Member Alzheimer's Association Medical & Scientific Committee-Northeast Texas and Dallas.

Dr. Lisk is also a Biotech Medical Advisor for startup companies including Beneufit, Likeminds Global and Level-Ex.